Australia's capital Canberra, offers up some unexpected delights with its impressive range of national attractions, arts and culture, events and festivals.

Canberra is all about highlighting the best Australia has to offer. Reflect on our history at the Australian War Memorial or see sports stars train at the Australian Institute of Sport. Step inside the most famous building in the city and take a tour of Parliament House. There's so much to see around Canberra, especially for families. Kids can spend hours at the science-themed Questacon. Impressive displays captivate at the National Museum. Spend a day with the animals at the National Zoo and Aquarium, or see the world in miniature at Cockington Green Gardens.

Even a day out shopping is a chance to explore more of the town. Everything from handcrafted market wares to designer boutique shopping is on offer. Retail hot spots can be found at Lonsdale Street in Braddon and in Manuka and Kingston.

Canberra's parkland setting and distinctive seasons make it picturesque at any time of year. Visit during spring to see more than one million flowers bloom on cue at Australia's celebration of spring, the Floriade festival.

The countryside surrounding Canberra beckons, with more than 30 wineries, historic townships and beautiful coastline to explore. Head out of the city for a day wandering through country towns and discovering secluded beaches. The Snowy Mountains are easily accessible from Canberra – find a wonderland of snow and skiing in winter or head up during summer for a mountain escape.
