Dunedin's cafés, bars and galleries accent a quirky and beautiful city where the harbour and the architecture combine for some beautiful sights. Conquer the steepest street in the world, surf at St Clair Beach or swim in the heated beachside pool in summer. A drive along the Otago Peninsula is well worthwhile. Splendour at Larnach Castle or visit the Royal albatross colony.

The prize for the most stunning part of New Zealand would be hotly contested, but Fiordland would be a safe bet. Cruise across the country's second largest lake, Lake Te Anau, go kayaking, see spectacular waterfalls or take a long walk through untouched national parks.
