Visit Cape Naturaliste Lighthouse

Explore Ngilgi Cave near Yallingup

Watch the majestic whales migrating at Augusta (Jun to Sep)

Plan an itinerary full of great meals, beach stopovers and forest walks in the Margaret River Wine Region. Find yourself lying on the beach one day, then exploring forests and caves the next. With stunning coastal scenery and gourmet produce all around, the area is a holiday paradise.

Head south from Perth along the coast for some seaside fun. At Bunbury, share the water with local Bottlenose dolphins. Further south at Busselton, stroll the longest jetty in the southern hemisphere then continue to Cape Naturaliste Lighthouse for a guided tour.

Culinary connoisseurs, get your tastebuds ready. Margaret River boasts such a variety of gastronomic experiences you'll be overwhelmed with the options. Gourmet cheeses, chocolate and fudge are just the start. There's wine tasting and superb food all around the region. Have fun seeking out the best the area has to offer.

Back on the coast, the surf's up at Surfers Point. Watch the experts take on breakers at the world famous beach. Head through towering Karri forests to amazing hidden cave systems like Mammoth Cave near the town of Margaret River or Ngilgi Cave at Yallingup.

Spend some time in the beautiful forest landscape before emerging at the small town of Augusta. Take in the scenery at the mouth of the Blackwood River, where national park meets coastline. At the most south westerly point of Australia is the historic Cape Leeuwin Lighthouse.
