By day Sydney's inner east is a hub of boutiques, art galleries and music stores. By night, it's home to Australia's best known entertainment precincts. Put on your party outfit and head out for a night at Darlinghurst Road, King's Cross. Looking to go more upmarket? Try Potts Point and Woolloomooloo.

Darlinghurst's colourful Oxford Street is known for its fantastic ethnic restaurants. The street is packed with boutiques and book shops. Call into a local art gallery or pick up something new at one of the music stores. When the sun goes down, head out to one of the clubs or bars for some live music.

Extend your tour of inner Sydney with a visit to Surry Hills. With a flurry of new restaurants opening, Crown and Burke Streets offer some of Sydney's best meals. The fine dining experience at Marque Restaurant is not to be missed, or head to Longrain for fantastic Thai.

Scenic Paddington is the place to go for all that is new and hot. Pretty Victorian terrace houses lead into bustling Oxford Street with its trend-setting fashion, shoe and homeware stores, as well as cafés and restaurants.
