See Natural Bridge in Springbrook National Park

Not that far away from the bustle of the Gold Coast beaches is the Hinterland. This region is a lush rainforest paradise, with winding country roads carving their way through the dense forest. There are walking trails for everyone, leading to gorgeous waterfalls and lookouts. This area just has to be inspirational, because there are so many talented artists living here.

Lamington National Park has all this and more. It's Australia's largest preserve of pristine sub tropical rainforest, there are easy walks and challenging hikes, waterfalls and wildlife. Get a bird's eye view of it all on a flying fox through the rainforest or on the Tree Top Walk. Canungra is gateway to Lamington National Park and its main street is lined with an eclectic collection of small shops and cafés.

For arts, antiques and wineries, visit Mount Tamborine, where the pretty Cameron, Cedar Creek and Witches Falls can be seen. Dotted with walking trails and lookouts, follow the road up the mountain and stop wherever you feel like it – there's endless natural beauty all around you. A visit to Gallery Walk's row of shops is a must.

Springbrook National Park has a reputation for fabulous waterfalls including the famous Purlingbrook Falls. Take the short circuit walk to the waterfall and natural arch over Cave Creek, known as Natural Bridge. A nocturnal tour introduces the delicate inhabitants of the cave; a colony of glow worms.

Wine is also serious business in the Hinterland. Canungra Valley Vineyards, Albert River Wines and Heritage Wines are all worth taking a break from the nature trail.
