

Tweed Heads and Kingscliff

Kingscliff

Complementing the buzz of the Gold Coast is the Tweed Heads region. Once you cross the Queensland border from Coolangatta into New South Wales, you'll notice a change of pace. Lovely beaches and the Tweed River are the major attractions, providing surfers, swimmers, anglers and boaties with plenty of options for rest and recreation. It's just a scenic drive to national parks including Mt Warning, visit Tropical Fruit World or head south to check out Byron Bay.

Tweed Heads offers great beaches, friendly local dining and a host of shops and entertainment options. If it's a beachside village holiday you're after, Kingscliff will impress. Salt Village at Kingscliff is a modern development right on the ocean that combines stylish resort living with a village ambience. With a common ground for picnics, community events and concerts, Salt Village combines a laidback holiday vibe with the convenience of quality bars and restaurants. And no seaside village would be complete without a Surf Life Saving Club, and Kingscliff has one of the best. Call in for sizzling ocean views and great value meals.

A great way to explore the million dollar homes with million dollar views surrounding Salt is to hire a bike and take the scenic route from Salt Village to Kingscliff.
