

Exploring the Central Queensland Coast is a rollercoaster ride of experiences.

Mackay's tropical city centre combines dining and shopping with lovely architecture. Down by the marina there are restaurants and bars overlooking the ocean and the coastline is dotted with dozens of sun drenched beaches.

Rockhampton is a historic city with the longest National Trust Heritage Street in Australia. Travel north and you're at the Capricorn Coast, including 13 beaches or head inland to discover Carnarvon National Park, with Aboriginal rock art and delicate ferns amidst towering sandstone cliffs.

Gladstone is the gateway to the southern reef, and from here you can day trip to Lady Musgrave Island and Fitzroy Lagoon for some spectacular snorkelling and diving.
