The Cairns Highlands are known as the food bowl of the tropics. The range and availability of fresh, quality local produce makes it a food lover's paradise. The Atherton Tableland and Kuranda region that make up the highlands are littered with roadside stalls and farms selling tasty treats, from tropical fruits to macadamia nuts. Raise a glass of one of the many locally produced wines or get your caffeine fix on a visit to a coffee plantation.

The adventure options continue and no visit would be complete without throwing a line in for a fish or paddling a canoe on a lake, taking part in a wildlife cruise or lacing up the boots for a bush or rainforest walk. The more intrepid will be hard-pressed to pass up the experience of white water rafting. Or take the express way and see the whole landscape from the skies as you soar through the air in a hot air balloon.

In between daring adventures and stops for gourmet treats, expect spectacular views on scenic drives among rolling hills and lush rainforests. Travellers will be rewarded by stunning waterfalls between quaint towns that welcome you with loads of atmosphere and vibrant local markets. Head to Kuranda for the most famous of the markets.
