

Cooktown and Cape York

Our Favourites

Stand at the northern most point of mainland Australia – Cape York

See Quinkan Aboriginal rock art at Laura

Swim in the pristine waters of Fruit Bat Falls and Twin Falls

Discover where Captain Cook landed in 1770 at Cooktown

Cape York Peninsula is truly Australia's last frontier – 115,000 square kilometres of wilderness and rainforest, sacred Aboriginal sites and rugged mountains that can't be seen anywhere else. Fish for Barramundi, get involved in turtle conservation or follow in the footsteps of Australia's early explorers. Start in historic Cooktown and work your way to the mining town of Weipa. Next on the itinerary are the small Aboriginal coastal communities of Bamaga and Seisia. Cross the Torres Strait and you're at Thursday Island, a three square kilometre patch of paradise. And of course, you can't miss standing on the tip of mainland Australia.
